24/7 Support is available at our hosting company NXWEBhost.com, at <http://www.nxwebhost.com/support>.

truehumansupport service covers all website maintenance needs, such as creation and configuration of email addresses, additional domains, sub domains, disk space balancing, etc. The service is provided in order to take away the burden from clients that simply do not have time nor interest in managing their web hosting account requirements. truehumansupport by NX WEB Technologies takes care of all maintenance needs at the hosting account level and it is included for the first year free of charge under the hosting plans: advanced, executive, enterprise and corporate. Otherwise also available for an annual service fee under all other plans and after expiration of the free annual service, if any.

For pricing regarding truehumansupport service, please contact your sales representative.

Please Note: Domain name registration service and related registration fees are not included under any of these hosting plans. However, we can assist you in registering domain names on your behalf. Please contact your sales representative for more information.

We thank you for your interest in our Managed Shared Hosting Packages.
